Amazing Saudi Arabia

As Saudi Arabia is a huge and exciting country, there is no way you can see everything on one trip, so the one week my son and I had to spend there was definitely not enough. Our plan was to go to Jeddah, where we could visit some of my friends.

On our first day there, we went to a place called Balad, with lots of interesting markets, or souqs, selling everything from spices to clothes and jewellery. There were bright colours everywhere and the smell from the Saudi spices was amazing. We decided to get some baharat, a middle-eastern spice, for my wife.

We also went to the Floating Mosque, one of the most amazing sights of Saudi Arabia. It is called Floating because it appears to be on water and it is even more beautiful than you can imagine.

Soon enough, it was time to return home. Travelling to Saudi Arabia is an exciting experience. The people are polite; the places we visited were wonderful. I'd love to go back one day.

Last year we wanted it to be different. So, we decided to book a room at a (3) hotel for a change. Unfortunately, it wasn't what we expected. (4) First of all, everything at the breakfast (5) buffet was terrible, so we never had a nice breakfast. And breakfast is my favourite meal of the day! The (6) room service was very bad, too. The people were rude and it sometimes took them more than an hour to bring our food to the room. (7) Also, the hotel's (8) Wi-Fi connection didn't work and we couldn't send any e-mails. Hi Jonathan, How's everything? I'm doing OK. Listen, I'm thinking of spending a week at a youth hostel in Lisbon. I remember you stayed at one last year, so I'm writing to ask you for some information.

Suggested answer:

Firstly, could you tell me... what its address is? Also, what facilities does this hostel offer? Next, how far is it from the city centre? Finally, do you know how much it costs for a week?

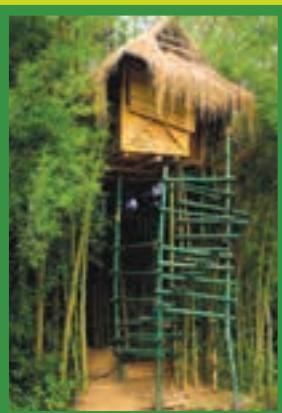

I'm thinking of going next month, so can you please write back soon? Thanks J.
You're the best.

Bye for now,
Alex

C. Read the text and write T for True, F for False and NM for Not Mentioned.

Half the fun is where you stay!

Travelling abroad is not always easy to do—tickets are costly, restaurants are expensive, and cheap hotels are hard to find. To save money, one of the best options is to stay in a youth hostel. However, don't just choose any hostel. Stay in a place with style, or at least, with some extra fun.

Are you a big fan of nature? On Mission Beach, Australia, the Treehouse Youth Hostel is a great and unusual place to stay. This is a fancy tree house built on stilts right in the rainforest and it offers amazing views. This hostel has a swimming pool and a small library. Enjoy your holidays and let the sounds of the rainforests lull you to sleep!

Looking for a room in Malaysia? Why don't you try out one of the thousands of rooms at the First World Hotel in Genting Highlands? You can choose from cheap to very expensive hotel rooms! Because the hotel is in the Resorts World Genting complex, guests have many entertainment options right next to the hotel: a shopping mall, a theme park, a variety of restaurants and cafés, and many more. While staying there, you can also relax at the sauna or the swimming pool or, if you feel like some exercise, visit the gym or play golf or tennis. The First World Hotel is famous around the world not only because of its size, but also because it is so colourful. Don't miss out!

Imagine the most perfect tropical holiday. Does relaxing on the beach watching the sunset sound good enough?

Add inexpensive hostel prices, and suddenly you're at the Seashell Cove Resort in Fiji. There you can relax next to the water in any one of their traditional wooden cabins or 'bures'. A holiday simply doesn't get any better than that!

Finally, backpacking through the North American mountains can be a fun, but tiring journey. When you're ready to rest your feet, don't forget to stop at the Ottawa Jail Hostel in Canada. This is perhaps one of the most unusual hostels in the world. The best thing about this old jail is that in the morning you're allowed to leave!

1. The Treehouse Youth Hostel is the most expensive of the four hotels.
2. The hotel offers rooms at different prices.
3. There's a theme park inside the hotel.
4. The Seashell Cove Resort is a cheap hostel by the sea.
5. The Ottawa Jail Hostel is one of the strangest places to stay in Canada.

3. Meals

- At hotels with no free breakfast, arrange to have your own breakfast food, like cereal, milk, juice, fruit, etc. After all, it's a very easy meal to prepare.

The Pigeon Post

Nowadays, we have the Internet and the telephone. So, we are able to communicate with people instantly, no matter how far away they are. But it wasn't always this easy. In the past, people had other ways of getting their messages across. For example, some used people (known as messengers) while others used animals. One of the most common ways was to use carrier pigeons.

Many people don't know it, but carrier pigeons were the first 'airmail system' in the world. You can write a message on a piece of paper, put it in a small tube and attach it to the pigeon's leg. The pigeons can take the message anywhere and then fly back with a reply. They can fly great distances without getting tired. Also, they can travel day and night and always find their way back home.

The Arabs started using pigeon messengers about a thousand years ago, through the medieval times. As the Arabs were extremely skilled at training pigeons, the birds travelled amazing distances to carry messages, from the Middle East to North Africa! The ancient Egyptians used this kind of communication over 3,000 years ago to deliver important news. Later on, the Greeks used the birds to carry news of the Olympic games, such as the names of winning athletes, to different parts of the country. The Romans and many others sent military information using pigeons.

In modern times, people used carrier pigeons for various reasons, too. During the Franco-Prussian war (1870-1871), when Paris was under attack, carrier pigeons helped to send messages to and from the city. During WWI and WWII, some pigeons even got medals because they saved lives. In the 20th century, they used carrier pigeons in some places in India to send messages with news of natural disasters.

1. How did people send messages in the past?

They used people or animals.

2. What part of the carrier pigeon's body carries the message?

Their leg.

3. Who were the first people to use carrier pigeons?

The ancient Egyptians.

4. Why did people use carrier pigeons in ancient Greece?

To carry news of the Olympic Games to different parts of the country.

5. In which city did they use carrier pigeons during the Franco-Prussian war?

In Paris.

6. When did they award carrier pigeons for their work?

During WWI and WWII.
